

The Investment Industry's Firm of Choice

Redefine the value of your audit and tax experience.

Our national Investment Industry Services Group provides audit, tax and consulting services to public and private funds, investment advisers, fund service providers, high-net-worth individuals, trusts and foundations. Cohen & Co® has a specialized team known for its leading expertise and reputation in the investment industry, but there are a few key areas that will make your experience with us exceptional:

Senior level involvement. Tailored, attentive service.

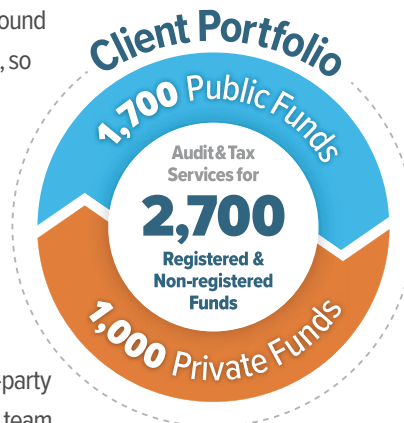

Our clients receive year-round access to the most experienced members of their engagement team. Partners and senior professionals stay involved and are always available — from providing formal client communications or attending board meetings, to engaging in informal conversations on industry developments. Additionally, we train our teams from the ground up to exclusively work with investment industry companies, so clients benefit from meaningful conversations and insights at every level. We do not use client engagements as training opportunities.

Industry leading technology. High quality engagements.

We've invested heavily in an audit- and tax-focused technology stack, which includes proprietary, custom and third-party solutions, that, together with our Data Intelligence Services team, maximize the value and efficiencies of our engagements. In addition, from an audit perspective, our technology allows us to focus on substantive issues earlier in the audit process, leading to greater efficiencies and higher quality audits.

Tailored resources. More informed boards and management teams.

We keep our clients up to date on the latest audit and tax regulatory developments, and their impact. In addition to sharing regular thought leadership and customized briefings on technical and industry issues, we host an annual conference that is a key component of the Cohen & Co client experience. The multi-day event is tailored to registered funds, alternative funds and investment advisers, and provides critical industry updates from experts from around the country.
